

Miss Loranger to Teach Here

A long weekend drive from Ventura to Torrance will end for Miss Alicia Loranger with the beginning of the fall school term.

Miss Loranger, the daughter of Mrs. Paul D. Loranger of 1448 Post St., will return home to teach at the Torrance Hillcrest Elementary School this September.

A graduate of Whittier College, Miss Loranger has taught kindergarten classes for the past three years at the Blanche Reynolds School in Ventura.

Though Miss Loranger holds a degree that entitles her to teach up to the eighth grade, she states that she much prefers the kindergarten level. "I like babies," she says, and adds that as far as teaching goes she wants nothing else.

The daughter of the late Paul Loranger, owner of Paul's Chevrolet, Miss Loranger is happy to have found a teaching position so readily in her home town.

Candlelight Vows Unite Local Pair

Candlelight wedding ceremonies united Judy Poe, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Poe, 514 Elm St., Inglewood, to Larry D. Herrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Herrington, 4524 Talisman, at the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Downey, June 13 at 6:30 p.m.

Rev. G. F. Duerr read the vows joining the couple and the bride's sister, Maid of Honor, Rachel Poe, sang as the bride entered the church on the arm of her father.

The bride's gown was fashioned of imported chantilly lace and satin, with a chantilly lace train and finger tip veil caught by a tiara of pearls and sequins.

Her bouquet consisted of white carnations surrounded by ivy and centered by a single white orchid.

The maid of honor wore a complementary dress of yellow nylon chiffon over taffeta and carried white carnations and yellow roses.

Serving as best man was Wally Engle, ushers were Charles Marrow and Gary Herrington, cousins of the bridegroom. Larry Kardon acted as ring bearer and little Sharon Grant as flower girl.

The bride's mother wore a pink chiffon dress for the occasion and the mother of the groom, a dress of pink lace, both wore matching accessories.

Following a reception at the home of the bride's parents the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Northern California.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of El Camino College. The bride is attending Long Beach State College and the groom has been employed by the B. F. Goodrich Store in Torrance.

The couple will make their new home in Torrance.
